

I oppose BPL due to its severe impact on the use of HF frequencies allocated to the amateur radio service. It has been proven that this technology WILL introduce high noise levels into residential neighborhoods where many amateur operators reside. The high noise levels will severely affect the ability of amateurs to operate, by blanketing the receiving spectrum with noise in such a magnitude as to make it nearly impossible to receive communications from other amateurs.